

Adriana

Nural

Tell me Adriana
Do you see me through the TV screen
Or hear me through the magazine
Professing love like I've never felt
For someone that I don't know

Though I believe in love at first sight
Ever since you arrived and made a believer out of me

I want to whisk you away
I want to whisk you away
yeah
I want to whisk you away

Come on Adriana,
Was it you in my dreams reminding me I belong?
But waking up swearing that your still here
This isn't fair
I'm in love with you
But you wont ever know my name
But

I want to whisk you away
I want to whisk you away
yeah
I want to whisk you away

Call it lust, call it love
Just don't call it none of the above, no
'cause Adriana you're the one
Hear me out
I'm not charming, I'm not rich
But I've got a heart and you to share it with Adriana you're the one
You're the one
You're the one

Tell me there's a first time
For everything,
A first time
Tell me there's a first time
For everything
Tell me there's a first time
For everything,
A first time
Tell me there's a first time
For everything
Tell me there's a first time
Oh, Tell me there's a first time

I want to whisk you away
(For everything,
A first time)
(Ohhh,

I want to whisk you away
I want to whisk you away
