

Calmer Waters

Nural

Home,
Where the midnight fireflies glow
And shed some light
On things you outta know
But for whatever reason don't, leave it so

Could you just close your eyes and,
Let the heartache in release,
All those tears you hid
Let go of what passed you up

And tear down every wall in this cursed ground
Each brick is music to your ears at the sound
Somewhere there's a ripple in the wake of this tragedy
That carries you to calmer waters

Run to the aid of the very one that kept you here
Simply out of love
As if your souls not capable, of any wrong

Could you just close your eyes and,
Let the heartache in release,
All those tears you hid,
Let go, of what passed you up

And tear down every wall in this cursed ground
Each brick is music to your ears at the sound
Somewhere there's a ripple in the wake of this tragedy
That carries you to calmer waters

Could you just close your eyes and,
Let the heartache in release,
All those tears you hid,
Let go, of what passed you up

And tear down every wall in this cursed ground
Each brick is music to your ears at the sound
Somewhere there's a ripple in the wake of this tragedy
That carries you to calmer waters
That carries you to calmer waters
That carries you to calmer waters
