

So Clear

Nural

I'm listening even closer now
Was never said to catch my attention
The right answer's far from what I wanna hear
But now it's so clear, so clear...
So clear to me.
(Whoa oh oh oh oh)

You wasted no time in taking it away
I can imagine how one's filled with such apathy

And I know I never could seem
To get my point across was never easy
And it's worthless to follow me
These clouded thoughts have over taken me

You're resisting this even more now
Open your eyes to find a solution
The right answer's far from what I wanna hear
But now it's so clear, so clear...
So clear to me.
(Whoa oh oh oh oh)

You wasted no time in taking it away
I can imagine how one's filled with such apathy

And I know I never could seem
To get my point across was never easy
And it's worthless to follow me
These clouded thoughts have over taken me
And giving in has changed everything
These clouded thoughts have over taken me
Taken me...

So clear, so clear to me
(Whoa oh oh oh oh)

You wasted no time in taking it away
I can imagine how one's filled such apathy

And I know I never could seem
To get my point across was never easy
And it's worthless to follow me
