

City On Down

O.A.R.

Well, in the end, my friend, we will all be together again
Clutching onto my hand, in a valley we'll stand, just living again

And in a while we'll smile, march on another mile
On hallowed hills, attached to the land we'll be still No one's ever gonna say a thing
And we'll be together, together again
Taking off to the city on down

Just a while ago my soul was confused, amused at what it didn't know

Days went by, and amusement cried, I decide to let My soul fly on by itself, pick happiness up and bring it back to the shelf

We'll be okay one day, in this valley we'll stay
No more moving on

I knew it was right here all along
Won't have to hold your crown, no more looking around
Just holding you tight in the city on down

Just a while ago my soul was confused, amused at what it didn't know

But days went by and amusement cried
I decide it's time, I got to move on now
But I was so scared

I was frightened, somewhat enlightened
So I changed shoes

Now I walk through a valley of color much better than the other Way I did not know, but now we can be united

Miracle, miracle sighted, and I'm pulling it in

I know by now we can all walk together at a regular speed

Do you dare to be excited, are you aware somewhat delighted?

Are you aware somewhat delighted?

At what you did not know

Let's take it to the city on down
