

Heaven

O.A.R.

I'm underneath it all tonight
Out my window there's a million lights
A thousand hearts feeling just like me
Man, it feels like heaven out here in the street

I know i got a lot to learn
Breaking bottles only left me hurt
Played with fire till i burned myself
Don't you know that love'll bring us somewhere else

So you take the left, I'll take the right
Under arrest, we're under fire
Oh, oh, oh, oh
I don't wanna go to heaven if i can't get in
You take the low, I'll take the high
You lock the gate, i hear the choir
Everybody got a problem with the way i live
I don't wanna go to heaven if i can't get in

Maybe i should take my time
And build this life by my own design
With no direction and it's in between
Everything i love, and everything i need

So bring it back
All i want is understanding
To live my life the way that i planned it
Wouldn't change a thing
Man, it feels like heaven underneath my feet

So you take the left, I'll take the right
Under arrest, we're under fire
Oh, oh, oh, oh
I don't wanna go to heaven if i can't get in
You take the low, I'll take the high
You lock the gate, i hear the choir
Everybody got a problem with the way i live
I don't wanna go to heaven if i can't get in

So raise em up, raise em up
All i ever wanted was a shot at your love
I know and i believe
Everything we got is everything we need
Love'll get you higher
It set my heart on fire
I know it's what you see
I don't wanna go to heaven if they don't want me

Cause I'm no criminal
I'm not your enemy
All i have is life
And i don't wanna go to heaven if i can't get in

So you take the left, I'll take the right
Under arrest, we're under fire
Oh, oh, oh, oh
I don't wanna go to heaven if i can't get in

You take the low, I'll take the high
You lock the gate, i hear the choir
Everybody got a problem with the way i live
I don't wanna go to heaven if i can't get in

Raise em up, raise em up
Everything you wanted is inside your cup
Drink up
Love will get you higher

Oh, I'm not your enemy
I never met no criminal
And in the end I'd do it again
I don't wanna go to heaven if i cant get in

Oh, I'm not a criminal
Yeah I'm no enemy
It's just the way i live
I don't wanna go to heaven if i cant get in
