

Tired

O.N.A.

How long can I worry about you
How long must I wait here alone
How long can I worry about you
How long must I wait here alone

I'm getting tierd of all the cause that I'm making
I'm getting tierd of fighting your silance
Why the hell should I wait here for nothing
How long must I wait here alone

I know those other bitches you're seeing
And sometimes, just sometimes you do it with me
How long can I worry about you
How long must I wait here alone

Well don't you worry cause it's not a problem
Right now there's just one thing I'm missing

I don't love you
You don't love me
You know what I'm saying Yeah
Cause you aint got time
I'll walk out and find
This means I'm craving

I'm talking about the way that I'm thinking
Talking about the way that it sucks
I know you remember the games I like playing
I know you remember I don't give fuck

So I don't love you
You don't love me
You know what I'm saying
Cause you aint got time
I'll walk out and find
This means I'm craving
