

Burning Bridges

Obey the Brave

get back on track
no turning back

I knew it all along deep down I felt something wrong
no more will I pretend
i'm on the edge
this is the end

I feel a storm coming
don't lose hope
take over
soon, it'll be over

you're blowing up my phone don't call, don't text
leave me alone
no more will I pretend
i'm on the edge
this is the end

i'm starting to see the light of the day the bridges I burn will light my way you've had your chance, now go away

get back on track

i've had enough of this the things I did, I can't dismiss
no more will I pretend
i'm on the edge
this is the end

don't lose hope
take over
soon, it'll be over
all over

just give it a rest

the damage is done
I gave you my best
we've had our fun
just give it a rest

you've had your chance, now go away

we've had our ups and downs stood my ground, can't boss my around you did me wrong and so you paid

get back on track
