

Alone

Obscura

Solitude spread it's wings
Awakening forgotten fiends
Listen to the thunder scream
Fear and silence
Strangling shadows in my dreams

Lend me the warmth of your skin
Send me the light of your eyes
Grant me the shelter of your heart
Why can't you hear my silent shriek?

Nowhere embraces me
Shades of grey is all I see
Listen to the ravens screech
Fear and praying
Choking wind take away my speech

Lend me the warmth of your skin
Send me the light of your eyes
Grant me the shelter of your heart
Why can't you hear my silent shriek?

Can't you see I'm fading
Why can't you hear my frozen call?
