

Sentiment

Obscura

Your eyes are hiding deep inside
Your touch is on my tongue
Read clearly between the lines
Are they just theories of time?

Suffering in faith

Do you feel the pain that I feel?
The pain that lives inside
Once I was free, but now I am restricted
Once I was restricted but now I am free

Close my eyes

Let the voice of the soul be free
Await discovery

Laugh at my words you fool
See that reflection is my living proof
Read clearly between the lines
Are they just hallowed intentions?

Suffering in faith

Faith, my inner world of empty words
Pain, I won't live this way
Once I was free, but now I am restricted
Once I was restricted but now I am free

Close my eyes

With every breath I hear the silent
Whispering of your name

Let the voice of the soul be free
Await discovery

Laugh at my words you fool
See that reflection is my living proof
Read clearly between the lines
Are they just theories of time?

Close my eyes, and feel
