

Everything Comes at the Right Time

Ocean Colour Scene

I got a better love, got a whole new prose
Got a whole new goal
And I gonna find love, I'm gonna fall in love
And it makes me cold
And I gotta move my heels, gotta move outta here
Gotta change my lane
And I, I commend you now, yes, I told you soon
So that you'd know now

That at times, everything comes at the right time
And at times, everything comes at the right time

I, never understand, never understand
With this pain in my hand
And I cut my home, yes I cut my home
When I need to go
And I know your face, know it aches
And I know it's sad
Oh I, quit that scene 'cos I could not see
Just where to be

'Cos at times, everything comes at the right time
And at times, everything comes at the right time

Yes I got a better love, got a big part of love
And it makes me whole
Oh I yes I play with love, yes I play with love
And it's playing with me

But at times, everything comes at the right time
And at times, everything comes at the right time
And at times, everything comes at the right time

Come on over to my side now
Come on over to my side now
Come on over to my side now
