Is She Coming Home

Ocean Colour Scene

Is she coming home, I'll leave the light on But through times and space she'll go
If she's coming home she won't tell me
And I wonder if I should know

Wonder if I should feel something Wonder if I should know But it's dark in here

Tip-toe softly do not wake her As she sleeps so very slow Dim the light on her day-dream But her dreams you'll never know

Wonder if I should feel something Wonder if I should know But it's dark in here

See her fading dress and frame its colours For a memory you'll long to know Drape the covers in her bedroom But life freezes with melting snow

Wonder if I should feel something Wonder if I should know But it's dark in here

Ah...is she coming home... Ah...is she coming home... Ah...is she coming home...