

Fucked Up Situation

Oceana

You used to be the sweetest one
But now I really think I`m done
I can`t take your shit no more
You lost your mind,I think you`re poor
All I need now is to find my peace
Go ahead,get out,just leave my keys

It`s just a fucked up situation
And I don`t like desperation
It`s just a fucked up situation
And I have no no no more patience
For you..

I throw my phone against the wall
But still I`m waitin for your call
I see you drawnin in front of my eyes
I`m never gonna be part of your life

It`s just a fucked up situation
And I don`t like desperation
It`s just a fucked up situation
And I have no no no more patience
For youu..

Sooner or later you`ll come knockin at my door
All those excuses, I`ve heard them all before
I`ll make it more than once in this life
And I won`t walk the same circle twice

OhOhOhohooo.....
