

Dead Planet

Oceano

Malevolent are the architects who have changed their ways.
Glaring down on us, overwhelmed with disgust.
They now anticipate the end.
Human DNA deemed a tainted creation.
We were forewarned, signs were ignored.
Now we must submit to extermination.
A predestined termination,
a chance to redesign their failing offspring.
You were forewarned,
and now you must meet your end.
Aborted, so then we can begin again.
Channeling power, drained from within the Earth to construct superior specimen.
But before the end, you're forced to watch this world burn
and transform into a dead planet.
Watch this world burn
and transform into a dead planet.
This is a dead planet,
a wasteland, it's fucking worthless. (2x)
