

Run, Tommy, run... did you get all you want?
Did you drink the well dry? And extinguish all the sunshine?
I didn't say that I felt the same, you just took it as read
As I closed all the blinds and put you to bed
And read you all the last rites.

It serves as a warning to me, just like most of these days do
Cuz I just wish that I coulda just left you there sitting in yo ur own shit
Cuz I know that you would need to See, cuz I've drove through all this before
And I've bought that skinny tee
With a big black gaping hole where the heart should be
That says, "baby, I renounce thee"

Don't you die on me now

A kiss is now a circus show
The bids are turned a neon glow
Through spectacles of rainbow red
You never feel your love 'til it's dead

Aaaahhhhhhhh

Well faith keep him
A stop and don't endure
No one ever paused
Empty as a hole and ever depleting

What I'm for makes this all
A bankrupt sea of love
Cannot swim above
Empty as a hole and ever depleting

I recoil from the blast
And look around me though
Neither friend nor foe
Empty as a hole and ever depleting
