

Heavy Hands

Odd Project

In times like these I feel I'm going under
I choose my fate with every step I take and wonder...
I've seen the world unfold in the blink of an eye
I want to be born again in A world not of our own
Lungs burst and I'm not breathin'
Nobody seems to notice there's A lack of meaning
But feels alright, Perpetuating the lie
I've already seen where I'm going with this
And I've been in my place.
I've been right here all along
I've seen the world unfold yeah, In the blink of an eye
Open your eyes
