

Subcortical Desiccation

Odious Mortem

Excretions or sight sponed from the soul
Resisting expulsion from the cavity within external forces atte mpt to grasp what cannot be let to bleed Extracting the spirit dismantling the inner mind's womb Staggering forth across barren lands Patterns of the dunes spread across the sky Images fall beneath tyrants of perception splintered across an open mind's chalice Cycles of thought grab hold Bringing this reality encased in its mental experience Force of re-creation takes back this harnessed energy
All thoughts consumed into a matrix of variation Dimensions dictated by false divinity escaping the confines of the earth released from mortality
As the physical life is drained the mental capacity grows Enhanced by death this spirit becomes a witness to its inherit diminishment
