

Game of War

Of Mice & Men

Cold world, isolating
Cold soul, what happened to that fire inside?
Structure, ever fading

Old bones can't take the weight though I still try

I'm waiting for the war to end
Are we ending to begin again?
If patience is so virtuous
Then maybe I'll be damned

Cruel world, captivating
Hollow, eaten alive from the inside
Rapture, kind decision
Old eyes can't take much more though I still try

Cause I'm waiting for the war to end
But are we just ending to begin again?
If patience is so virtuous
Then maybe I'll be damned

I'll be damned
Are we damned?
I'll be damned
Are we damned?

I'm waiting for the war to end
We're just fighting just to lose again
In this game of war no one fking wins
