Instincts

Of Mice & Men

Beware the serpents in the leaves And their deception An outstretched hands closed to a fist Becomes a weapon

I see the damage they have done I see the battle's just begun I know the answer lies inside I feel it when I close my eyes

Through disaster and decay Survive to fight another day When there's no time for you to question Every single step you take Press on, and trust in your instincts Trust in your instincts

Break down the barriers of fear And superstition Listen to your primal past And intuition

You'll see the damage they have done You'll see the war is never won You'll know the answer lies inside You'll feel it when you close your eyes

Through disaster and decay Survive to fight another day When there's no time for you to question Every single step you take Press on, and trust in your instincts

Kill or be killed (stand and fight) Sink or swim (run and hide) The answer lies within

Through disaster and decay Survive to fight another day When there's no time for you to question Every single step you take Press on, and trust in your instincts
