

They Don't Call It the South for Nothing

Of Mice & Men

Make waves, make waves, I'm sea
It's all you can take
Come back
Back down now
I'm drifting away

Your ship's sunk, it's gone down
now your captain is dead
Your saints become sailors, when my ocean is fed
By these bloody waters, mark my words

Come on

Alright I want you all to clap along and sing with me

When I said I'd fight back, I didn't say that I'd fight fair
I said I'd fight back, I didn't say that I'd fight fair
I said I'd fight back, I didn't say that I'd fight fair
I said I'd fight back, I didn't say that I'd fight fair

Salt your eyes

Sleep with all the fishes
The waves start the flood that's drowning yourself

Broken, then we'll salt your eyes
No wind, this sound
Broken, then we'll salt your eyes

Waves, make waves, back down
Stop drifting away
Come back, come back
It's all you can take

We'll pour salt in your eyes
We'll pour salt in your eyes

I said I'd fight back, I didn't say that I'd fight
I said I'd fight back, I didn't say that I'd fight
