

Was Your Face a Head in the Pillowcase?

of Montreal

Looking under the ghost on your face kind of ruins it for me I don't want to see you toss it's hair
No I don't need you to show me its smile

You see because I'm learning
yes I know about your mask
so I no longer have to ask

If I can peek behind the ghost on your face

That really ruins it for me I don't want to clap and stare while you show me the expressions it makes

You see because I'm learning
yes I know about your mask
"Was your face a head in the pillow case?"
