Raining

of Verona

Don't want to be here
Don't want to be here right now
Don't want you to see me crying

Don't want to feel this
Don't want to feel this right now
Feel like I could give up trying

Then it falls on down
Anchors to my bones
Pins me to the ground
I feel like dying

Nowhere else to move
Then it breaks on through
It's almost shining

When it's raining on me
(It all becomes clear)
Raining on me
(No one said life was fair)
On me
(So I'll take it as it comes)
On me
('Cause the rain leads to the sun)

I have to face it
I'll need to face this right now
Because I can't change what's coming

Tried to escape it
I can't escape this right now
I think I'm tired of running

Then it falls on down
Anchors to my bones
Pins me to the ground
I feel like dying

Nowhere else to move
Then it breaks on through
It's almost shining

When it's raining on me
(It all becomes clear)
Raining on me
(No one said life was fair)
On me
(So I'll take it as it comes)
On me
('Cause the rain leads to the sun)

Never felt I was good enough
Never felt I was good enough
Made a play when I was weak

I could not speak
I could not speak

Found my voice and got control
Took it back to what I know
What goes up must come down
What has passed will come around

So let it rain
It's almost shinning

When it's raining on me
Nobody said life was fair
It's raining on me
Nobody said life was fair
One me
Nobody said life was fair
On me
Nobody said life was fair

I pray to god to make you better
I pray to god to make you better
I pray to god to make you better
I pray to god to make you better
I pray to god to make you better
I pray to god to make you better

Oh I pray
Please god
Make him better
Make him better
