

Don't Make Me Go

Off With Their Heads

Please don't make me go home,
I can't handle the sight of that place again.
Please don't make me go home,
I'm wanted there even less than I'm wanted here.
And if I have to go home and say I'm sorry for things that I'm not sorry for,
I'd rather keep on destroying myself for my own needs,
Than opening the back door,
Please don't make me go.

Please don't make me go home,
They'll blame everything on me even though it's not my fault.
Please don't make me go home,
I can't handle seeing that place again.
I know they think I'm fucked up,
And I know exactly where everybody stands.
Please don't make me go home,
Face everything that made me who I am.
Please don't make me go.
Please don't make me go.

Ooooooh
Ooooooh
Ooooooh
Ooooooh

Please don't make me go.
