

I Need You

Off With Their Heads

I'm through, I'm through
I can't take it anymore, I've had enough, I don't know what to do

I can't move, I can't move
I've damaged myself and there's no turning back to regroup

It's a lonely road, it's a long jagged path
Don't know if I will be able to last

I need you, I need you
You don't know how much you can help with what little you do

I'm confused, I'm confused
I know I need help, and that's why I'm turning to you

I'm having trouble dealing with loss
And coming to terms with the fact that it cost
Me my whole life by running away
I am unable to deal with the pain,
Trying to find someone else I can blame
It's obvious the only one to blame is me, is me

I need you, I need you
You don't know how much you can help with what little you do

I need you, I need you
You don't know how much you can help with what little you do
