

Drunk in a waiting room, I can't fall asleep
without knowing how you're gonna to be.
Think about what you have,
it isn't that bad.
Sometimes it's so hard to see.

High in a waiting room, I can't fall asleep.
It's not funny how things came to me.
Thought about what you had, it wasn't half bad.
Sometimes it's so hard to see.

My time spent in hospitals makes it seem impossible
to ever walk back through that door.
You've got so much more to do.
I'd trade it all with you.
I'm just a drug addict and nothing more.

My time spent in hospitals makes it seem impossible
to ever walk back through that door.
You've got so much more to do.
I'd trade it all with you.
I'm just a dumbfuck passed out on some floor.

My time spent in hospitals makes it seem impossible
to ever walk back through that door.
You've got so much more to do.
I'd trade it all with you.
I'm just a drug addict and nothing more.
