Nissim, Offer

Why did you take it all away?
Why did you have nothing to say?
If you don't go stay I won't go through another day

Why did you take it all away?
Why did you have nothing to say?
If you don't go stay I won't go through another day

Why did you take it all away?
Why did you have nothing to say?
If you don't go stay I won't go through another day

Why did you take it all away?
Why did you have nothing to say?
If you don't go stay I won't go through another day

You're breaking my heart

You promised that you won't leave me
But I need you
But you just kept on running away

You promised that you'll be there
If I'm with you
But you were not there anyway

So I try, and I try to make it in my plans
And I know where you had to go
It's the same with my name
You're breaking my heart

Why did you leave?
Why don't you need me?
Why don't you making all the promises you gave me
You're breaking my heart

Why did you take it all away?
Why did you have nothing to say?
If you don't go stay I won't go through another day
You're breaking my heart

Why did you take it all away?
Why did you have nothing to say?
If you don't go stay I won't go through another day

Why did you take it all away?
Why did you have nothing to say?
If you don't go stay I won't go through another day

Why did you leave?
Why don't you need me?
Why don't you making all the promises you gave me
You're breaking my heart

Why did you take it all away?
Why did you have nothing to say?
If you don't go stay I won't go through another day

You're breaking my heart

Why did you take it all away?

Why did you have nothing to say?

If you don't go stay I won't go through another day

You're breaking my heart

Why did you take it all away?

Why did you have nothing to say?

If you don't go stay I won't go through another day

Why did you take it all away?

Why did you have nothing to say?

If you don't go stay I won't go through another day;
