

Illusion

Nissim, Offer

It's an illusion
I cannot scape
The confusion

You wanna know what it takes to love you babe
It's only lies that I'm telling to myself
You never think, you never care about me babe
It's only me who's thinking of us every day

I tried to love you, I tried to give you all I have
But I would never get back all the love I gave
I tried to love you, I tried to give you all I have
But I would never never give the love I gave

It's an illusion
I cannot scape
The confusion
