

Change The World

Offspring

1. I see the way the salesmen stare into the sun
I stood and watched them as they fell off one by one
And everyone's so blind
They're not to help mankind
Reach into your bag of tricks and pull another one

R1: Ooooooooooooo
You don't want to change the world
like you say
Ooooooooooooo
You're in it for yourself
No one else
You're ready saving yourself
You're gonna change the world
You're ready saving yourself
You're gonna change the world

2. Now when the day is set they'll line up all the same
And those that need the most will never get or gain
The ones you call your friends
Are failing you again
Reach into your bag of tricks and make it go away

R1: Ooooooooooooo...

R2: And since you ain't what you say
Then just go away
Cause some don't lie
Some don't lie

*: Go on now they won't tell
Go on now and save yourself
Go on now they won't tell
Go on now and save yourself (2x)

R1: Ooooooooooooo...

R2: And since you...
