

Secrets from the Underground

Offspring

Feel the way it grows,
When the words have left the mark
With the promise of tomorrow,
That tricks and leaves you in the dark
There's something in the air,
And there's something rising up
Not one, but a million that have had enough!

Hey, yo, no
I'm not gonna go away
I've got something more to say
Kick and scream, it knocks you down, it knocks you down
Hey yo, go, underneath we'll tear you down
Secrets from the underground,
Anger starts the fire!

This is not an anthem,
Or a threat at someone's name
But a promise that tomorrow
Will rock and burn, if things won't change
There's something in the air,
And there's something rising up
Not one, but a million that have had enough!

Hey, yo, no
I'm not gonna go away
I've got something more to say
Kick and scream, it knocks you down, it knocks you down
Hey yo, go, underneath we'll tear you down
Secrets from the underground,
Anger starts the fire!

Underneath we'll tear you down
Oh, oh, oh, secrets from the underground

Hey, yo, no
I'm not gonna go away
I've got something more to say
Kick and scream, it knocks you down, it knocks you down
Hey yo, go, underneath we'll tear you down
Secrets from the underground,
Anger starts the fire!
Hey yo, go
Hey yo, go
Secrets from the underground,
Anger starts the fire!
