

Deep-Sea

Oh Land

So long under water
I couldn't hold my breath anymore
In this watery world
I went
Down, down, down
Past the carals
Sinking into the bottomless deep
Knowing you were the only one who could rescue me
Bubbles float
To the surface where you'll be waiting
Thinking; "She's found a treasure with diamonds and Golden rings"
I needed you
And you were gone
That day
