

Pyromaniac

Oh Land

Light me up and blow me away
Like a moth drawn to a flame
No swing door to keep you away
'Cause here in the dark there's nothing to say
I'll sing a torch song for you now if you want me to

I'm a pyromaniac, you're my perfect match
And sparks fell so fast you know we got
Both ends burning
I'm a pyromaniac, you're my perfect match
And sparks fell so fast you know we got
Both ends burning

Woohooo woohooo woohooo both ends burning

Making me warm and taking me higher
Can't see the smoke for the trees
Or the forest through the fire
You saw the warning sign
But you threw caution to the wind
So don't blame me for the sad state your in

I like candle lit dinner for two
I do, I do
'Cause I'd rather see red than feel blue
I do, don't you?
