

So I Took You

Oh No Oh My

So I took you to the house
And sat you down up on the couch
You said "I don't know what to do"
"Darling that's alright; we go to the roof"
So I took you to the stars
Floating up above the yard
You said "I don't know just what to believe"
"Darling that's alright; we go to the sea"

So I took you to the beach
And buried sand up to your knees
You said "I don't know just where to start"
"Darling that's alright; we go to the car"

So I took you into town
We watched the people rush around
You said "I don't know where to go"
"Darling that's alright, we go down below"

So I took you to the chair
You bumped your head coming down the stairs
You said, "I don't know just where I've been"
"Darling that's alright, this is the end."

So I took you with a knife
And watched your eyes fight for life
You said, "I wish I just learned to love---"
