

Children Of Fire

Oh, Sleeper

We were born to fight!

Here I stand, my breath has faded away for the crowd to push and plea
And scream, "Come with me!"

Dear God, live for your promise
He has reached a decree that's bringing me to faith
My faith and sweat have remained to contend the cramp(?)
Despite the sting, we wait until you bring your fate

We're singing!

We are the children of fire!
We are the lions!
We stand when all else deserted!
'Cause we were born to fight and fight and fight!

I see you, tattered and bruised
You're the only one to remain true
I hear your call through the thick of it all
You've waited so long for the rescue
Until it has come!
I'm sweating red, I'm sweating red, I'm sweating red
I'm red, I'm sweating red, I'm sweating red, red, red
I'm sweating red, I'm sweating red, I'm red
I'm sweating red, I'm sweating red red red

It turns from blue
The sky comes unglued
It falls to the earth as my answer
You're so far from rain the live will feel pain
As it sings their skin both for you and... we'll see(?)

And when the sand feels like gravity on my skin
Finally I am free to never breath again
My body lives through the ground I was rooted in
And pass the spark as it reaches to the rest of them

We are the children of fire!
We are the lions!
We stand when all else deserted!
'Cause we were born to fight and fight and fight!

We are the children of fire!
We are the lions!
We stand when all else deserted!
'Cause we were born to fight and fight and fight!

Deny Deny Deny the world
Deny Deny Deny the world
Deny Deny Deny the world
Deny the world and let it burn!
