

Dealers Of Fame

Oh, Sleeper

Now's the time
To gather yourself for the ride.
This tale is teaching to change us for what's inside.
Look for the power before human fame ?
You can never stop us,
We'll never have enough.

But what we'll always see in lights-
The only key is fame, fame, fame!
Don't ever try to save us,
We'll prove we've always had enough.

But can they always teach us?
All we need is fame, fame, fame.

And he's just started turning 19 ?
What did you scream?
Don't try to save us,
We'll prove we're man enough!
Look how they chased us!
All they need is fame, fame, fame!

You follow all the laws, ?
You chase the lie you hold so high.
They're coming up, ?
Your soul to feed the distance of your flight.
With every cut,
They lift you up.
With every cut,
They lift you up.

Do the watchers murder in the public eye? ?
She swings wide
To open her arms, welcome the bribe.
Behold, these are the monsters that we've conquered.
And they're all gonna die!

Let 'em rot!
Let 'em rot!
Let 'em rot!

These are only a few, for the rest marches on.
This fame is a drug, and the addicts are drugged.
But we measured the doses, and give them a flame,
So the charge is on us.
We are the dealers of fame!

You follow all the laws, ?
You chase the lie you hold so high.
They're coming up,
Your soul to feed the distance of your flight.
With every cut,
They lift you up.
With every cut,
They lift you up.

Sixteen, don't you lie. ?

You crave so the horror of the wretched sign, ?
Look for the power before the human fame. ?
