

Oxygen

Oh, Sleeper

Oxygen, oxygen, oxygen
Oxygen, oxygen, oxygen

Underestimated and far from the grave
The brighter the fire, the sharper, the blade
And the undertaker awaits me
But this body's for the pyre
So ash he'll receive
We didn't come this far to feed the ship to the sea
But this body's for the pyre
So ash he'll receive

Oxygen, oxygen
Black out the sun, you'll see I can be the light
Oxygen, oxygen
Boil the seas as I sink to the bottom of the ocean
Oxygen, oxygen
Rip out the claws, you'll still meet the teeth in time
Oxygen, oxygen
Spoil the feed, we'll feast on the venom of aversion

Cast from the crest
The kingdoms of the Judas crown
The fleecing traitors and the wooing gowns
Look around you
If it blocks your path, burn it down
Pile it on, I'll burn it all
Fire crawls any wall in its way
So when there's nothing left to burn
I'll set myself ablaze

All we are is spark and flame

Oxygen, oxygen
Black out the sun, you'll see I can be the light
Oxygen, oxygen
Boil the seas as I sink to the bottom of the ocean
Oxygen, oxygen
Rip out the claws, you'll still meet the teeth in time
Oxygen, oxygen
Spoil the feed, we'll feast on the venom of aversion

Underestimated and far from the grave
The undertaker's gotta wait for me
Cause I'm far from fading
Test me
This body's for the pyre it can take the heat
Yeah, it can take the heat
This body's for the pyre it can take the heat
