

Standing on the world outside
Climb up and then let them slide,
Stop still color blind
Hoping for a black and white
Are you gotta be my love, are you?
Gotta be mine,
I feel it falling from the skies above, are you?
Gotta be mine,
My wave, my shark, my demon in the dark
The blue tide pulling me under,
Are you my soul, my heart, pull everything apart
Are you gonna, are you gonna be my love?
Are you gonna, are you gonna be my love?

Walking on the clouds unknown,
Track down where I'll never go, never go, never go
And floating like gravity's gone
Reach down into a deep deep hole, deep hole deep deep hole
Are you gotta be my love, are you?
Gotta be mine,
I feel it falling from the skies above, are you?
Gotta be mine,
My wave, my shark, my demon in the dark
The blue tide pulling me under,
Are you my soul, my heart, pull everything apart
Are you gonna, are you gonna be my love?
Are you gonna, are you gonna be my love?
Are you gonna, are you gonna be my love?
Are you gonna, are you gonna be my love?
Are you gonna, are you gonna be my love?

Standing on the world outside
I'm a shark and I love them slide.
