

When it's getting through
I feel as if the time is coming around
I am finally going through this time in my life
Sure let me know I feel as if the time is coming around
I am finally going through my great disaster

Got divorced with the way I was and I tried to get away
So will you take me out of it for a while I'm a lusid dreamer
Will you take me out for a while knock me out cold
Will you take me out for a while I'm a lusid dreamer
Take me out in one fell swoop knock me out cold
Life is really easy when taken down apart
From up around the center a spiral blown heart
To give it some relation to give in to belief
Freedom to the limit the limits set you free
