Try to Believe

Oingo Boingo

I wish real hard when I close my eyes
If I could change the world would I even try
Try to believe
If I found a reason to regain my pride
Oh, if I try to believe, try to believe

It's so hard to find an answer
It's so hard to stand alone
It's so hard to find a feeling
That was buried long ago
It's so hard to trust another
When it's easier to hide
It's so hard to believe
Unless we try, baby try

If I had a dream and it got away
If I found the words would I know what to say
(Try to believe)
If I had a chance to be someone else
Yeah, if I try to believe, try to believe

It's so hard to find an answer
It's so hard to stand alone
It's so hard to find a feeling
That was buried long ago
It's so hard to trust another
When it's easier to hide
It's so hard to believe
Unless we try, baby try

Try to believe one more time
And I try, baby try, baby try
(Try to believe)
And I try to believe one more time
And I try, baby try, baby try
(Try to believe)
And I try to believe one more time
And I try, baby try, baby try

If I found a door I've never been through
Would I have the courage to go in without you
(Try to believe)
And if time runs short would I recognize the things I couldn't see
If I try to believe, try to believe

It's so hard to find an answer
It's so hard to stand alone
It's so hard to find a feeling
That was buried long ago
It's so hard to trust another
When it's easier to hide
It's so hard to believe
Unless we try, baby try

Try to believe one more time
And I try, baby try, baby try
(Try to believe)

And I try to believe one more time
And I try, baby try, baby try
(Try to believe)
And I try to believe one more time
And I try, baby try, baby try
(Try to believe)

If we listen to the voices that were silent for so long
If you thought they went away, well you couldn't be more wrong
If I tell you there is something that we've lost but can retrieve
If I tell you there is hope, if we try to believe

You remember there's a dream that we long since put aside
With the toys that we discarded and the tears we never cried
We could have had it once again
If we try, baby try
