

Obsession

OK Go

A look so quick
A movement so slight
You could almost imagine
It didn't just happen
But everything'll change
In just one look, one little glance
It's not passin' fascination now

It's obsession
Uh huh, it's obsession
It's obsession
Uh huh, it's obsession
It's obsession

And it's physical
It's like standing at the edge
Your blood starts to pump
'Cause you're worried you might jump
And your head throbbing like a heart
Heart throbbing like a drum
Drums throbbing like the xxxxx
Just go ahead and jump

It's obsession
Uh huh, it's obsession
It's obsession
Uh huh, it's obsession
It's obsession

A look so quick
A movement so slight
Ah, it's not passin' fascination now

It's obsession
Uh huh, it's obsession
It's obsession
Uh huh, it's obsession
It's obsession
