

Hands Off

Old 97's

Hands off

I had a dream they took my hands off
Although you probably think that I'm soft boiled
I'm still in love with you

Girlfriend, don't sit around waiting for the world to end
I'll keep my distance but I won't pretend
I'm not in love with you

And it's all your fault, you spiked my malt
She slipped a mickey in my heart, heart, heart
And I can't shake free, although I'm shaking like a tree
I should've never let it, I should've never let it start
I should've never let it

Deep end, I guess I'm going off the deep end
It's only 'cause you've got a hand to lend
I'm still in love with you

Crap shoot, you've got the snake eyes and lizard boots
I like you better in your birthday suit, yeah
I'm in love with you

And it's all your fault, you spiked my malt
You slipped a mickey in my heart, heart, heart
And I can't shake free, although I'm shaking like a tree
I should've never let it, I should've never let it start
I should've never let it

It's all your fault, you spiked my malt
You slipped a mickey in my heart, heart, heart
And I can't shake free, although I'm shaking like a tree
I should've never let it, I should've never let it start

I should've never let it start
I should've never let it start
I should've never let it start
