

Ain't It Enough

Old Crow Medicine Show

Show me a river,
I'll show you an ocean,
Show you a castle,
Turned into sand

For we rise and we fall,
And we crash on the coastline,
But only our love will last till the end

Fortune is fleeting
Time is deceiving
Bodies are weak and they turn into dust

Cause following blindly,
But Love is lightening,
It strikes only one time
And ain't it enough

Ain't it enough,
To live by the ways of the world
To be part of the picture
Whatever it's worth
Throw your arms around each other
And love one and another
For it's only one life that we've got
And ain't it enough

Surely all people were made for each other
To join in together When the days turn to dust
So the let the prison walls crumble,
And the borders all tumble
There's a place for us all here
And ain't it enough

Chorus:

Ain't it enough,
To live by the ways of the world,
To be part of the picture,
Whatever it's worth,
Throw your arms around each other,
And love one another another,
For it's only one life that we've got,
And ain't it enough

Bridge:

Late in the evening,
Feeling the wind blow,
Talking to the tree tops,
Warning the sun,

Lying beside you,
Watching the moon rise,
That's all there is babe,
And ain't it enough

* harmonica solo*

Show me a river,
I'll show you an ocean,
With stars just like diamonds,
All shining above

Oh, where the heavens are beaming,
And all the worlds dreaming,
For peace everlasting,
And ain't it enough

Chorus:

Ain't it enough,
To live by the ways of the world,
To be part of the picture,
Whatever it's worth,
And love one another
For it's only one life that we've got,

Ain't it enough
