

Shuddering Earth

Old Man Gloom

The earth is shuddering
Faces pushed into the ash
Bodies are trampled
Smoke chokes the stars
World infested with tiny screechers
Red constricted faces tied up in terror
Gnashing of teeth
Clenching of fists
Clattering feet stamping
Clouds of dust
Solitary specks gather in malignant clusters
Sabers clash, a stuttering march
The earth is shuddering
Faces pushed into the ash
Bodies are trampled
Smoke chokes the stars
These monstrous infants
Sons killing, sons raping
Raging to forget their births
From frailty
Flowers vengeance
Vengeance of kindness
Vengeance of beauty
Live not amongst snarling hordes
Clasp hands in the swaying fields
Under open skies
