

Fight

Oleander

It's a little bit late now don't look at the clock there's not a moment to waste there's not a second to wait we forgot to pick up the pieces until we work this hell time has to stop

can you feel your heart beat racing
feel every breath we're taking
oh it's on and nothing now
staring into pins and needles
marching over your eyes

oh
fight for your life
fight
fight
fight for your life
fight
fight
we're fighting for more

I am coming out of the box if your ready or not
I come from broken and I'm taking a shot It's a little bit late now to look at the clock there's no time left, don't stop oooooooooh

fight for your life
fight
fight
fight for your life
fight
fight
we're fighting for my
right
nice
fight
fight for your life
fight
fight

all day, everyday
I know what I gotta do
I've been waiting for this moment
it's time to fight
the more we wait, the less we feel and everything becomes so new face to face

is what we fear
its all to care

fight
fight
fight
fight for your life
fight
fight
fight
fight
fight
fight
oh yeah
fight
