

Runaway Train

Oleander

Its a corner that you turn
Its a lesson that you learn in time

Its a worry that you feel
Another scar that you conceal
From sight

Have I been away too long for me to say?
Have I been away too long for things to change?

From a runaway train
Caught beneath the wheels
Of a runaway train

Every moment of the day
I feel it crumbling away if I

I only have myself to blame
For all the cracks within the frame that I find

From a runaway train
Caught beneath the wheels
Of a runaway train
I know how it feels
To be a runaway train

Its alright, its ok, its alright
