

I Don't Wanna Say Goodnight

Olivia Newton-John

Just one innocent smile
That I could have missed
That's all it took to start all this
One word so softly spoken
When I needed it most
Why you, why right now, who knows?

And I don't know why this is happening
Why it feels so right
But I do know I don't wanna say goodnight

Last kiss until tomorrow
Out on the front porch swing
'Til then nothing means anything

And I don't know why this is happening
Why it feels so right
But I do know I don't wanna say goodnight

I can't let go when I'm holding you tight
All I dream of is that day when we don't have to say goodnight

And I don't know why this is happening
Why it feels so right
But I do know I don't wanna say goodnight
And I don't know why this is happening
Why it feels so right
But I do know I don't wanna say goodnight

Just one innocent smile
That I could have missed
That's all it took to start all this
Oh no I don't wanna say goodnight
Oh no I don't wanna say goodnight
Oh I don't wanna say goodnight
Oh
Oh no just wanna hold you tight
