

I Will Lift Up My Eyes

Olivia Newton-John

There's a gate around the garden
There's a lock upon the gate
There's a key that longs to open
There's a river flowing somewhere
To a sea that knows her name
There's a ship that sails upon it

You are knowing
You are everywhere
In the shadows
And in the light
From the valleys
To the mountains
I will lift up my eyes
I will lift up my eyes

By the day the sun won't burn me
And the moon will guide thy way
For the spirit never slumbers
It will keep me from all evil
With it's arms around thy soul
From this moment and forever

You are knowing
You are everywhere
In the shadows
And in the light
From the valleys
To the mountains
I will lift up my eyes
I will lift up my eyes
My eyes ...
My eyes ...
My eyes ...
My eyes ...

I will lift up my eyes
