Not Gonna Give Into It

Olivia Newton-John

No me voy a rendir, no no No me voy a rendir, no no No me voy a rendir, no no No me voy a rendir

Oh I'm not gonna give into it no I'm not gonna give into it no no I'm not gonna give into it no I'm not gonna give into it

There are nights when the moon Shines in my eyes and haunts my mind And I can't sleep a wink And I really don't want to think

There are times when I feel If I sleep I'll die But I dare not cry And I run from my tears And I fight them back with my fears

Oh I'm not gonna give into it no I'm not gonna give into it no no I'm not gonna give into it no I'm not gonna give into it

And I feel so alone For although you care No one else can share It's my own misery In the end it's all up to me

Oh I'm not gonna give into it no I'm not gonna give into it no no I'm not gonna give into it no I'm not gonna give into it

And I watch you sleep soundly So peacefully unaware And your breath is soothing to me And it's good to know you're there

Then the morning comes With it's golden light And I feel alright And my heart beats again But the night is not my friend

Oh I'm not gonna give into it no I'm not gonna give into it no no I'm not gonna give into it no I'm not gonna give into it
