

Serenity

Olivia Newton-John

And when the shadow descend again
Give me the eyes
To see
And when the silence
Stills my lips
Give me the words
To speak
Accept the things I can't change
And change the things
I still can
Give me the wisdom to know the difference
Grant me serenity
Grant me
Serenity
And when the river is a wall of water
Give me the strength
To recede
And when twilight hides the horizon
Give me the faith
To believe
Accept the things I can't change
And change the things
I still can
Give me the wisdom to know the difference
Grant me serenity
Grant me
Serenity
Accept the things I can't change
And change the things
I still can
Give me the wisdom to know the difference
Grant me serenity - and I'll see eternity
Grant me
Serenity
