

Weightless

Olivia Newton-John

I confess my heart's in a mess
I've lost my way I need you today to say

I could tell you I love you,
Whenever you need reminding.
I'll be where you go,
When you think there'll be no silver lining.
Whatever you need I'll understand, and I'm giving you all that I can give.
And when I'm a fool,
I'm hoping that you'll forget.

I confess my heart's in a mess
But you can untangle it
I've lost my way, I need you to say
Just say you'll untangle it
If you show me I'm a keeper
If you lift me up and love me deeper
I'm no angel but I promise you this
I'm gonna be Weightless

I will make you all mine,
I'm not giving up for a minute.
But love can be lonely,
When you are the only one in it.
I believe that at any moment,
You could be standing at my door.
Don't make it too late,
I don't want to wait no more.

I confess my heart's in a mess...
But you can untangle it
I'm on my knees, I'm beggin' you please
Just say you'll untangle it
If you show me, I'm a keeper
If you lift me up and love me deeper
I'm no angel but I promise you this
I'm gonna be Weightless

If you show me I'm a keeper
If you lift me up and love me deeper
I'm no angel but I promise you this
I'm gonna be Weightless

(I'm gonna be) 3x

I'm gonna be Weightless!
