

24 Hrs

Olly Murs

When you sign your name
And your night's turn into morning
Now you see the sky's falling
And your thoughts are runnin' wild
It's a masquerade
Can you hear the angels calling?
There's a fear inside the warning
And you're feelin' like a child

Thanks so much for letting me know
That you're finally letting me go
My mind is out of control
But it feels so good
Ripped my heart right out of my soul
And you left it on the road
My mind is out of control
But it feels so good

I've been up for 24 hrs
Dancing with the silence
Thinking, thinking about you-ou-ou-ou
I've been up for 24 hrs
Dancing with the silence
Thinking, thinking about you-ou-ou-ou

Thanks so much for letting me know
That you're finally letting me go
My mind is out of control
But it feels so good
Ripped my heart right out of my soul
My mind is out of control

When you sign your name
And your night's turn into morning
Now you see the sky's falling
And your thoughts are runnin' wild
