

Baby Blue Eyes

Olly Murs

Ohh baby blue eyes,
you light the night skies.
It's clearer than the water,
so happy that I saw you.
Ohh baby blue eyes,
trying harder to disguise.
My heart is beating faster,
hoping for a happy ever after.

I don't know what to do.
So crazy over you.
Nothing gonna stop me getting through.
There's no where left to run.
Stop and see that I'm the one.
Won't go without a fight.
There's a roof for us tonight.
I should be by your everything.
You start, your end, your in between.
Can't help but fantasise.
Staring in those baby blue eyes.

A little bird told me,
you're the honey and I'm the bee.
Dip your toe in the water,
good times just around the corner.
I'm not the devil you know.
You're all dressed up, no where to go.
Let me lift you out 'a this,
Seal the future with a kiss.

I don't know what to do.
So crazy over you.
Nothing gonna stop me getting through.
There's no where left to run.
Stop and see that I'm the one.
Won't go without a fight.
There's a roof for us tonight.
I should be by your everything.
You start, your end, your in between.
Can't help but fantasise.
Staring in those baby blue eyes.

The windows to your soul,
open up and I'll fall.
Baby, baby, baby, please,
honey, why can't you see?
Those eyes are killing me.

Staring at mine,
Set us free!

There's no where left to run.
Stop and see that I'm the one.
Won't go without a fight.
There's a roof for us tonight.
I should be by your everything.
You start, your end, your in between.

Can't help but fantazise.
Staring in those baby blue eyes.
Staring in those baby blue eyes.
Staring in those baby blue eyes.
